++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Becoming brighter through the day with some afternoon showers.

Today:
A cloudy start for all, with some patchy showery rain. Cloud will break at times going into the afternoon to allow for brighter skies. However, scattered showers continue, possibly heavy and thundery in the east. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Tonight:
Showers easing through the evening to become largely dry overnight with clear spells. Some low cloud and the odd spot of rain may form over higher ground. Feeling mild. Minimum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Saturday:
After a cloudy start for most and a damp start for a few, Saturday will then develop into a generally fine day with increasing amounts of sunshine. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Largely dry with sunny spells on Sunday. Cloudier on Monday with some rain in the far west before more widespread persistent rain overnight. Cloud remaining on Tuesday with scattered showers.
